7.1.1 Facilities for Women on Campus

Providing appropriate facilities for women on a campus is crucial for creating an inclusive and supportive environment. The facilities in UCC includes the following

1. Women's Restrooms: Adequate and conveniently located women's restrooms with proper hygiene facilities are there in the college. These are well-maintained and easily accessible throughout the campus.
2. Provision for ladies wash rooms are also attached to the common rooms.

3. A recreation room for women faculty members offer provision for a stress-free environment and adequate rest for teachers in need of special attention and care owing to health issues. These are utilized for recreation and having lunch.
4. Day care centre for young children The institution offers great support to its faculty members through the establishment of a Day Care Centre (Kids Dale), which has been functional since 2010. The Day care centre was launched with funding from the UGC and continues to offer its support, especially to the women teaching and non-teaching staff of the institution. It offers tremendous support to the staff, most of whom are young women which helps them to have the comfort of being close to their babies and feed them during intervals. The Centre has two supporting staff trained in managing children. The functioning of the Day Care Centre is co-ordinated by a woman faculty member of the Department of Psychology.

9. Counselling Services

Accessible counselling services that specifically address the needs and concerns of women in the campus. UCC has a well-functioning Counselling Centre named BLISS (Basic Living Skills Service Centre) which caters to the emerging psychological needs of its students and staff. A woman faculty member of the Department of Psychology serves as the Co-ordinator of the Centre. The cell has the services of a trained counselling psychologist (Jeevani Counselling centre) on three days/week. The faculty members of the Department of Psychology also serve as counsellors for students in need of psychological help. The Centre is concerned with the rising mental health needs and offers counselling to students free of cost. The Centre is deeply concerned about the well-being of students, especially during the time of the COVID-19 pandemic and has organized mental health surveys and provided tele-counselling services. The Centre also undertakes the following:

- i) Assessment of psychological functions, strengths and weaknesses, personality, intellectual functioning, aptitude and other significant areas of interest.
- ii) Counselling services for girl students to handle relationship issues, academic related stress, adolescent psychological issues, sexual functioning and awareness and related matters.
- iii) Life skills training to enable girl students to develop 10 core life skills, such as self-awareness, decision making, problem solving, creative thinking, critical thinking, effective communication, interpersonal relationship, coping with stress, empathy and coping with emotions, proposed by WHO.

10. Inclusive Sports Facilities: Ensure that sports facilities are inclusive and accessible to women. This includes gym equipment suitable for women, women's sports teams, and equal opportunities for participation.

11. Gender-Neutral Spaces: While specific facilities for women are important, creating gender-neutral spaces can also contribute to inclusivity. Except wash rooms and ladies waiting room, all other spaces are gender neutral in the campus.

It is crucial to engage with the women on campus to understand their specific needs and preferences and to continually assess and improve facilities based on feedback and evolving requirements. Additionally, compliance with local laws and regulations related to gender equality and safety is essential.
