

3.4.1: Extension activities are carried out in the neighbourhood community, sensitizing students to social issues for their holistic developments and impact thereof during the years

The students of Commerce department donated Rs 32000/- towards Chief Minister's fund to fight against Covid during the pandemic period. They also collected Rs. 15000/- and donated to CFLTC, Karumaloor Grama Panchayath. This act has sensitized the student minds as well as the community nearby the college and evoked a response towards the need for urgently acting in the pandemic period.

The department of Psychology with the help of faculty members and students has undertaken a noble deed to provide relief to grief stricken minds affected by Covid Sars virus at pre, present and post Covid Scenario. They provided online counselling to affected minds to overcome the impact of Covid.

Dr. Neelima Ranjith, faculty of Psychology department has given a talk on Gender Equality which is actually the need of the hour and the student communities especially girl students who are the majority of this college in number have been uplifted and made aware of the position of girls in the society.

Dr. Marykutty P. J of the Psychology department conducted an online orientation session for NSS volunteers which sparkedled the young minds and ignited a leadership quality in them.
