Alumni Association

UCC is blessed with a rich family of alumni and friends living all around the globe, who have achieved great success in all walks of life. The UCC Old Students Association (OSA) was established to provide a forum for connection and fellowship for the alumni and friends globally with the UCC community. In 2023 the erstwhile OSA became a registered association (EKM/TC/284/2023).

In order to foster closer interactions and networking, seven local chapters and several regional centres outside Kerala and abroad have been formed by the alumni. Three such lively regional centres outside India are UCC Alumni Association of North America (UCCAANA), the UCC Alumni Association of Kuwait (UCCAANK) and UCC Alumni Association of UAE.

Students who have completed a programme of study or research in the college or completed at least one academic year can become voting members of the General Body upon receiving TC and membership fees of Rs. 200. The present and retired staff of the college are associate members. Members are eligible to use the services of the OSA office, receive publications or newsletters, exercise their vote in the General Body Meeting, register on the OSA website, attend alumni meetings and other events of the Association/Regional Centres or recognised Chapters.

Service Learning Centre (SLC)

Through initiatives like the SLC, which engages students from International Christian University (ICU), Japan and facilitates reciprocal visits, UCC actively promotes a global perspective, nurturing a sense of global citizenship among its students. The Service-learning Centre provides opportunities for students to use their technical know-how for the betterment of community and the process also enables them to learn from their immediate environment. The SLC at UCC is committed to provide a more dynamic learning experience for the students associated with the institution. The centre has partnered with multiple educational institutions and traditional industrial units in the vicinity where students can engage in service-learning. The SLC coordinates the international student exchange service-learning programmes. UCC has signed MoU with the ICU, Japan and students engage in international service-learning every year.

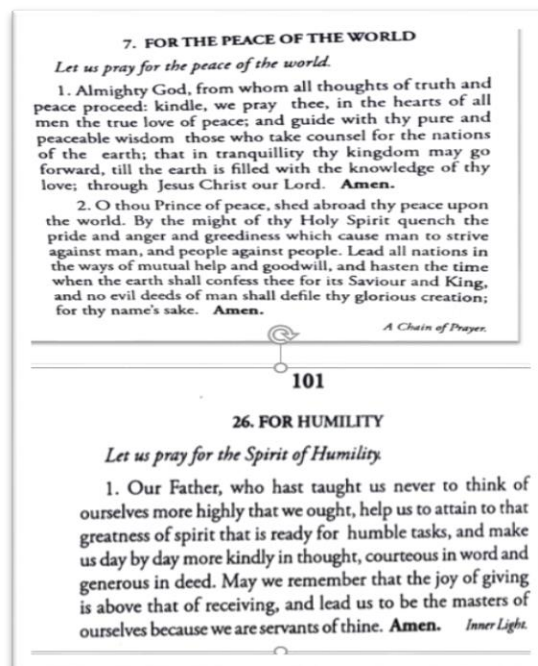

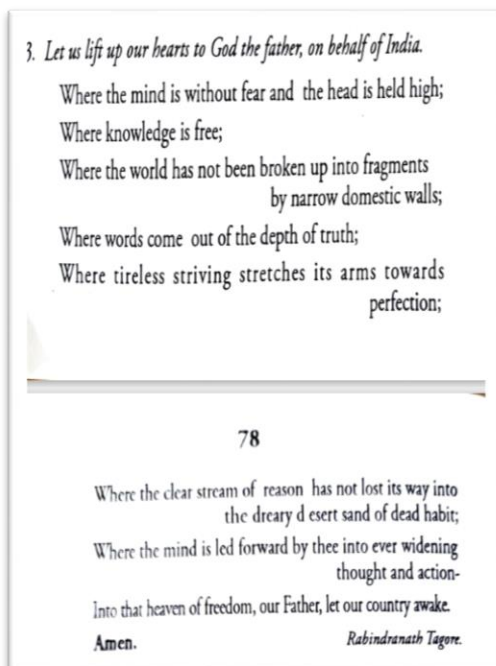

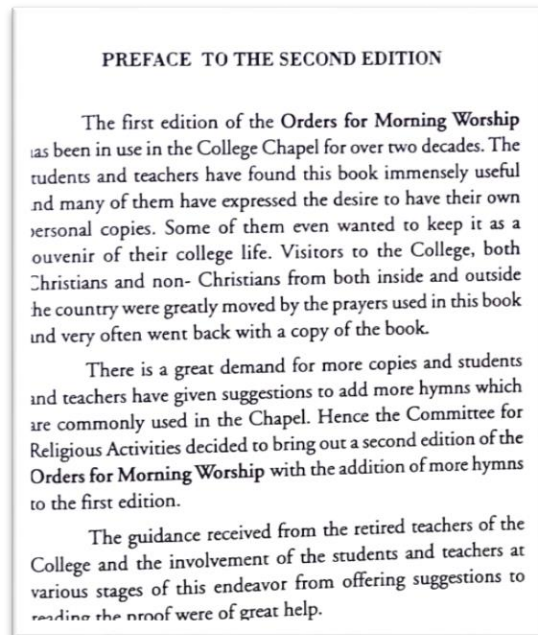

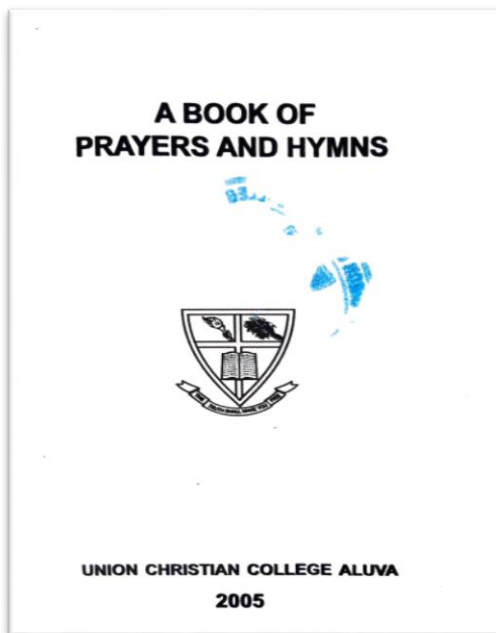

Empowering Communities Through Service-Learning: Bridging Knowledge and Action

Harmonious coexistence of different faiths

The college's unique approach to cultural diversity is evident in its prayer, which incorporates verses from both the English book of common prayer, Bible, Gitanjali and Upanishads, symbolizing a harmonious coexistence of different faiths. Prayers and songs brought together at UCC have been drawn from various traditions, sources and times but all reflecting attitudes, concerns and needs common to all humanity.

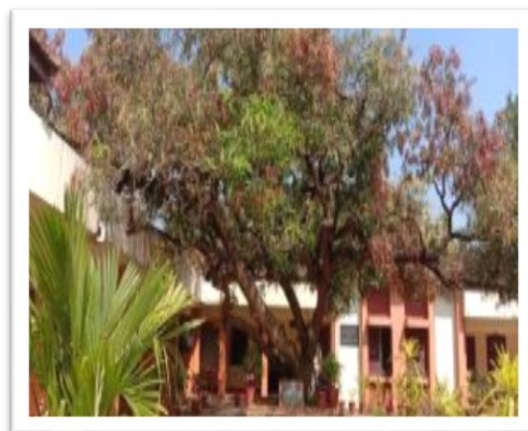

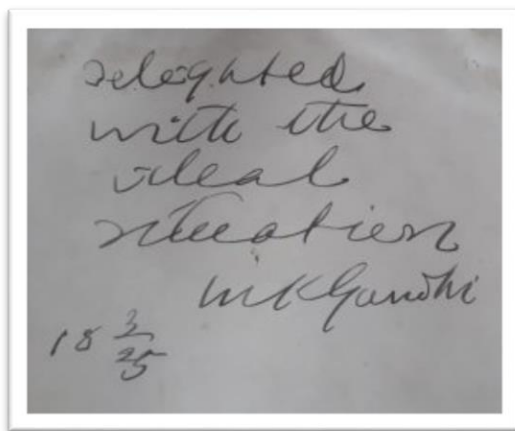

Heritage Preservation

The college is honoured to inherit the proud heritage of accolades and endorsements from the various eminent leaders of the nation who visited the institution in the past.

Mahatma Gandhi visited the college on the 18th of March 1925 and recorded in the visitors' diary his appreciation for the ideal conditions here. The sapling planted by him on the occasion, now a mango tree, is preserved in front of the administrative block as a testimony to the Mahatma's ideals.

The college was honoured by the visit of Gurudev Rabindranath Tagore in 1922, who acknowledged in his address to the community his joy at witnessing here the quintessential spirit of his Shantiniketan. In the same year the college was visited by Lord Irvin, the Viceroy of India then.

The other prominent personalities who visited the college during its fledgling years include Shri Ram Manohar Lohia (1950), Shri. K. P. Kesava Menon (1953), Shri. Jayaprakash Narayanan (1954), Shri. Morarji Desai (1957), Dr. Stanley Jones (1958), Shri. C. Rajagopalchari (1960), Shri V K Krishnamenon. The legacy has continued since then with other luminaries like Shri V. V. Giri, Shri. Shankar Dayal Sharma, Dr. A. P. J. Abdul Kalam honoring the college with their presence on various occasions. Union Christian College's trust with this heritage is kept alive in this generation too.

Kachery Malika is a Protected monument by the Department of Archaeology in the college campus. Its renovation is done by the Archelogy department at periodic intervals. Other Old buildings like, the Varkey memorial Hall, are also maintained in the campus.

Dear sir,

Sub : Cutchery Malika Renovation – preferential allotment of teakwood -
Penal interest – realization of

The Cutchery Malika on the U.C College campus is a protected monument of the Department of Archaeology. The Department entrusted to the Cutchery Malika Renovation Committee, the task of restoring the building. The District Collector was the Chairman of the Committee and the Principal, U.C College was the Convener. The Department of Archaeology, too was represented on the committee.

The Department of Forests assigned 10 cum (M³) of teakwood for the work on the recommendation of the Department of Archaeology.

Due to delay in the release of grants, the committee could not take possession of the timber before the deadline. The date was extended on request through proper channel. The committee never anticipated that penal charges would be levied on this account, since the delay was due to the late release of grants. Hence the committee refunded the unspent portion of the grants (Rs.93216/-) to the Government. The committee has ceased to exist after the formal completion of the assigned task.

The Divisional Forest Officer, Perumbavoor issued me a notice for the remittance of the penal interest (Rs.42481/-). I have made representations to the Principal Secretary, Finance Department, The Under Secretary, Department of Forests & Wildlife and the Director, Department of Archaeology to waive the penal interest, or to sanction a grant for its remittance. The response to these representations is awaited.
